Berni indicated that she has developed her own curriculum for entrepreneurship and would like to administrate that curriculum. She is planning five classes. One would be at the end of September, two in October and two in November. Each of the classes would have ten Hopi entrepreneurs in them for a total of 50 people benefitting. The classes would start approximately 9 am and go through 3 pm each day. All of them would be targeting the First Mesa area. Ultimately, she would like to see funding allowing participants in those classes to go to tourism workshops and conferences.

It was noted that the word "tourism" is unfavorable but the word "visitor" is positive.
